

Festival Schedule

On July 4, crafts, food, amusement rides, and music will be held on Spruce Hills Dr. Beginning July 3 through July 5, Spruce Hills Dr. will be closed from 18th St. to Cumberland Square Dr. Access to Cumberland Square businesses will be on Spruce Hills Dr. near Azteca and 18th St.

Mayor Gallagher and the City Council will serve
FREE ice cream at the hospitality tent from noon until 2 p.m.

Opening ceremony begins at Noon.

Noelle McDonald, Bettendorf Middle School 6th grader, sings National Anthem.

Amusement Rides, 11 a.m.-7 p.m. (Ticket sales stop at 6:30 p.m.)

Ticket prices for rides are: single ticket/$1 or 12 tickets/$10 (socks are required on rides)

Miller's Farmland Petting Zoo - 1 ticket per person

Petting Zoo Choo Train - 3 tickets per person

Zip Line - 5 tickets per person

Rock Climbing Wall – 5 tickets per person

Double Lane Castle Waterslide – 3 tickets per person

Sports inflatables, bouncers, slides, and obstacle course, 1 ticket per person

Arts and crafts booths

All types of food and beverage booths

The Quad Cities Optimist Fishing Derby at Middle Park Lagoon from noon until 2 p.m. Prizes will be awarded.

Quad City Skydiving Center's Parachute Team shows through the day and evening.

T.J. Regul, Quad City Magician offers fun on the spot performances from 12-6 p.m. near petting zoo.

Jim and Carol Bowe will perform at 6 p.m. at the Bill Bowe Memorial Band Shell. The Bettendorf Park Band will play at 7:30 p.m.

Fireworks at Middle Park beginning at dusk. Rain date July 8.

Bettendorf Transit Service will provide transportation to the festival from Bettendorf High School. Shuttle service begins at noon and ends at 9 p.m.

No shuttle service during the fireworks. No shuttle service on Monday, July 3.