Did you know?

The City of Bettendorf, Iowa is among a growing group of smaller cities across America being selected by business to locate their facilities. Bettendorf, with a population of 31,275 is in a metro of over 350,000 and enjoys a great quality of life at more affordable costs than many larger cities. Recently named by the National Association of Home Builders as the second most affordable, smaller metro housing market in the USA, Bettendorf is located in the Davenport-Moline-Rock Island MSA. Springfield, Ohio was first.

Research with the American Chamber of Commerce Researchers Association or ACCRA shows the same region as having a very favorable Cost of Living compared to many of the larger US cities as shown in the graph. Check www.nahm.org and www.coli.org for further details.

2ND MOST AFFORDABLE HOUSING MARKET IN USA

E D U C A T E D  W O R K F O R C E

If your business needs a well educated workforce, Bettendorf is certainly in a position to assist. Based on the latest US Census Bureau statistics, 38.8% of all Bettendorf residents over the age of 25 have a four year college degree or better. As shown in the attached graphic, this is 14.4 points higher than the national average. It does not end there, for even the youth of the city excel as reported through their National ACT scores. Two school districts call Bettendorf home, the Pleasant Valley and Bettendorf Community School Districts. The latest Bettendorf students' composite ACT score is 22.6 while, Pleasant Valley’s score is 24.7, while the national average is 20.9.