Saturday, July 3, 2021
Festival Activities

OPENING CEREMONY BEGINS AT NOON!
Sade Mutamba will sing the National Anthem, which starts the festivities on Saturday, July 3. Sade is a junior at Bettendorf High School. She has been singing in curricular choirs for five years and has been a soloist in Ankeny Intensity, Ankeny Visual Adrenaline, and Bettendorf Surround Sound. When Sade is not singing, she enjoys learning watching Netflix documentaries, playing violin, and hanging out with her dog, Fifi.

Mayor Gallagher & City Council will serve FREE ice cream at the hospitality tent from noon until 2 p.m.

To help with social distancing, there will be limited seating available at the festival. It is recommended that you bring your own chairs.

Bands will play on east stage and west stage from Noon until 10 p.m.
Check band schedule for details.

Amusement Rides, 11 a.m.-7 p.m. (Ticket sales stop at 6:30 p.m.)
Ticket prices for rides are: single ticket/$1 or 12 tickets/$10
(socks are required on rides)

Rides include:
Dragon
Raiders Slide
Delta Force
Justice League Challenge
Sports Arena
Ninja Wall

Miller’s Farmland Petting Zoo - 1 ticket per person
Petting Zoo Choo Train - 3 tickets per person

All types of food and beverage booths
Quad Cities Optimist Fishing Derby at Middle Park Lagoon from noon until 2 p.m. Prizes will be awarded.

T.J. Regul, Quad City Magician, will offer fun on the spot performances from 12-6 p.m. near the petting zoo.

Bettendorf Park Band will play at 7:30 p.m. at the Bill Bowe Memorial Band Shell.

Bettendorf Transit Service will provide transportation to the festival from Bettendorf High School. Shuttle service begins at noon and ends at 9 p.m.

Masks must be worn on the bus. Hand sanitizer and wipes will be available.